

HLTINF001 Comply with infection prevention & control policies & procedures

Course Description

This course is designed as an upskill opportunity for existing health, allied health, aged care and disability workers, currently in industry.

How will you learn?

Delivery will be over 4 weeks that consists of a combination of 4 x 3 hour sessions face to screen weekly (Zoom platform) and on-line training (Catapult). Scheduled weekly tuition support. Workplace observation record completion. Log books.

This course is offered through a Recognition of Prior Learning Pathway. Your learning has occurred over your years of working in a role which reflects the units of competency below.

Recognition of Prior Learning (RPL)

RPL is an assessment process that involves assessment of an individual's relevant prior learning (including formal, informal and non-formal learning) to determine the credit outcomes of an individual application for credit. We will work with students to identify any relevant existing skills and knowledge they may have to determine their eligibility for recognition for any components of the qualification which may save time and avoid unnecessary duplication of training.

Course Outline

This qualification consists of 1 units of competency and is detailed below.

Locations of Delivery

Due to COVID-19 restrictions, the face to screen delivery can be completed in a location that is suitable for the participant. It can be achieved at home or in the workplace.

Eligibility/Entry Requirements

Students must be employed within the health & community services sector.

Assessment

Assessment strategies vary with each unit of competency and are inclusive of on-line assessments, work place observations, third party reports and the completion of the work placement log books.

Recognition of Prior Learning assessment strategies will consist of Self-assessment, Resume, evidence portfolio, Competency conversation and if applicable Practical Activities.

Unique Student Identifier

From 1 January 2015, all students participating in Nationally Recognised Training in Australia will need to have a Unique Student Identifier, or USI. This includes students completing an apprenticeship, skill set, and certificate or diploma course. A USI gives you access to your online USI account and will contain all of your nationally recognised training records and results from 1 January 2015 onwards. Your results will be available in your USI account.

When applying for a job or enrolling in further study, you will often need to provide your training records and results. One of the main benefits of the USI is that you will have easy access to your training records and results throughout your life.

It is free and easy for you to create your own USI online at www.usi.gov.au. Your local Customer Service office can also provide further information and assistance. For assistance please call us on our admin desk line 04 2660 3503/02 8872 8903.
