Language, Literacy and Numeracy (LLN)
GTNT Training Plus delivers all its courses in English, the language in which legislation, regulations and other information are written and attempts to establish students LLN needs prior to course commencement. Potential students are advised they need to have the required levels of literacy and numeracy for the course they intend to enroll in. If students are currently attending school, this LLN ability assessment will be sought from the teacher responsible for organising the training with GTNT Training. If students are not school students and are enrolling in the course independently or through an employer, they will need to contact GTNT Training if they have any doubts of their ability to complete the assessments due to LLN needs. Also, if students are identified as needing assistance after course commencement a strategy will be provided by the GTNT. This strategy may include referral to a professional organisation such as an Adult Education Institution <input type="checkbox"/> I believe I have the required language, literacy and numeracy skills to complete the course
